

B $\flat$

Utt Da Zay

Arr. David Zakalik

(The Tailor's Song)

Buck Ram & Irving Mills
(adapted from trad. melody)

Verse

Em B B7 Em Em C7

My moth-er used to sing to me a haunting lit-tle mel-o-dy. No-bo-dy knows where it came from, or when it was com-posed. But now that I'm a cit - i - zen the song comes back to me a - gain.

5 B Em Em B Em B

8 Em B

Since it tells my sto - ry, this is how it goes:

10 Ref-A Em Em B Em

"Utt - da - zay" sings the tail - or as he fash - ions pret - ty clothes. Utt - da -

13 Em Em B Em

zay sings the tail - or as he sews and sews and sews.

15 Ref-B B Em B B Em B

He's as bus - y as a bee, mak - ing love - ly fin - er - y, things my

18 B Em B B C B

bab - y loves to wear, when I take her to the fair...

20 Ref-C Em Em B Em

"Utt - da - zay" sings the tail - or all it means is "That's the way." When I

23 Em Em B Em

buy the things he made her, sings the tail - or "Utt da zay!"